Sir:

I, Jessica S. Brown, declare:

1. I am employed as a Paralegal and Legal Secretary by the law firm of McDermott, Will & Emery, 2049 Century Park East, Los Angeles, CA 90067.
2. On July 25, 2003, attorney Marc E. Brown delivered the PCT application identified in the caption of this declaration and its related papers to me, fully signed, and directed me to file it on that day.
3. I then signed the Certificate of Mailing on the transmittal letter bearing the Express Mail Certificate number EV313253205US and made copies of the application and its related papers, including the cover letter and the return post card.
4. I then placed the original of the application and its related papers in an Express Mail package bearing number EV313253205US. A complete copy of the papers that I placed in this package is attached as Exhibit A.

4. At approximately 1:15 p.m. on July 25, 2003, I then delivered this Express Mail package to our mail room and told Edna Long who was staffing the room at the time that the package had to be deposited with the United States Postal Service Express Mail service prior to its normal pick up time on July 25, 2003.

4. Shortly after doing this and still on July 25, 2003, I gave a copy of the cover letter for this application bearing my signature on the Certificate of Mailing (Exhibit B hereto), the application, and the return postcard (Exhibit C) to our docketing department so that the filing of the application on July 25, 2003, could be recorded in our docketing department.

I hereby declare that all statements made in this declaration of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true. These statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. § 1001 and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

Signed this 4th day of September 2003, at Los Angeles, California.
